THIRD REQUEST FOR ADMISSIONS

Comes now Plaintiff David Stebbins, who hereby submits the following request for admissions:

1. When employed with the Defendants, I made $8.00 per hour.
2. As a direct result of making $8.00 per hour, I made $320 per week, if I work full time.
3. This means that a full-time employee at your company – without earning any raises or bonuses – would earn $16,000 per year, due to working 50 weeks per year (the weeks of Christmas Day and New Year's Day excluded).

You have until February 4, 2011 to respond to these admissions, or else, they will be

PLAINTIFF'S FIFTH REQUEST FOR ADMISSIONS

Please admit to the following facts:

1. I am currently in college (excluding the lawsuit that I am currently filing against the school).
2. I first enrolled in that college in August of 2010.
3. That was approximately one year after your termination of my employment, spoken of in the complaint, occurred.
4. Excluding the time I am spending suing the school (I am cutting you some slack on that, since that had nothing to do with you), it will take four years to complete this degree.
5. Therefore, I will be without a job for five years.
6. I would not have been prompted to enroll in this college program, but for your termination.
7. It will be extremely for me to find another job within five years, with the current state of the economy.
